ALABAMA CBF'S NEW ASSOCIATE COORDINATOR
& CBF'S YOUNG BAPTIST EVENT SPECIALIST

Rev. Alisha Damron Seruyange is a co-founder of Terra Nova Academy located in Kampala, Uganda, where she has lived the last 14 years. She holds a bachelor's degree from Samford University and a master of divinity from Duke University. She was ordained for Christian ministry in 2007 at the Baptist Church of the Covenant in Birmingham, Alabama.

She and her husband, Abdul, have three children, Micaiah (12), Malina (9), and Charlie Mae (6) and a foster son, Frankie. When she's not working, you'll find Alisha tinkering with recipes, swimming with her children, or reading the latest in young adult and children's literature.

Alisha's why: to carve out spaces for others to experience belonging, beloved community, and embrace their worth as they live into their fullest Divine capacity, so that the world becomes a more peaceful and productive place.

“
I first met Alisha when she was a student at Samford nearly 20 years ago when I invited her to serve as a Disciple Now group leader at Riverchase Baptist, where I was the minister to students. What I remember of Alisha then is still true of her today. She is a passionate Christ follower who not only loves people, but also knows how to be with people. Whether its high school students or veteran ministers, she puts people at ease with the depth of trust she naturally engenders. The opportunity to work with her as the new Alabama CBF Associate Coordinator and CBF Young Baptist Event Specialist, feels like a gift. Alisha will amplify our already good work and through her contributions we will see the kingdom of God come more fully into our world. Please join me in welcoming Alisha to our Alabama CBF Coordinator team!

FROM ALISHA

The momentum I feel in joining the work of Alabama CBF is centered on the joy I find in a team approach to Christian ministry. I get to wake up everyday, bring people together for meaningful connection as we encounter God and give God's good news to a world that could really use it. It doesn't get much better than that for me.

Alisha began her role as the Associate Coordinator of the Alabama Cooperative Baptist Fellowship and CBF Young Baptist Event Specialist on Monday, January 1, 2024.
